- 9.1 Conditions of Entry .A boat is entirely responsible for her own safety, whether afloat or ashore, and nothing whether in Notice of Race, Sailing Instructions or anywhere else, reduces this responsibility .It is for the boat to decide whether she is fit to sail in the conditions in which she will find herself. By launching or going to sea, the boat confirms that she is fit for those conditions and the crew is competent to sail and compete in them.
- 9.2 The boat is required to hold adequate insurance and in particular to hold insurance against third party claims in the sum of at least £2 million per event.
- 9.3 Nothing done by the organizers can reduce the responsibility of the boat nor will it make the organizers responsible for any loss, damage, death or injury, however it may have occurred as a result of the boat taking part in the racing. The organizers encompass everyone helping to run the race and the event, and includes the organizing authority, the race committee, committee boats, the race officers and others.
- 9.4 The boat is responsible to ensure that she is equipped and seaworthy so as to face extremes of weather, that there are crew sufficient in number, experience and fitness to withstand such weather and that the safety equipment is properly maintained, stowed, in date and the crew know how to use it. The fact that the race committee may conduct inspections of a boat does not reduce the responsibilities of the boat set out above.
